"Proceeds of the event will benefit The International Services Center," said Gerald A. Sullivan, Festival Co-chairman. "Our agency is in its 79th year of providing resettlement, English literacy, immigration counseling, and translation services to more than 20,000 persons per year." "Audiences will not only be thrilled by a tremendous show, but help our agency in a time of growing financial need because of increased demands for our social services," said Mr. Sullivan.

Patron sponsors are invited to help underwrite the cost of the production through tax deductible contributions.
